

PLUS EMERGING LEADER AWARD

Nominee Details:

Name: Hannah Rodriguez

Job Title: Broker, Professional Liability

Company: Burns & Wilcox

LinkedIn profile: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/hannahbette>

From the Nominator:

How long have you known the nominee? And in what capacity?

2 years as her direct reporting manager

Describe ways in which the nominee has demonstrated a commitment to the industry via activities in their company, involvement with professional organizations such as PLUS, or other extracurricular activities related to PL.

Hannah has consistently grown her career from marketing while at marketing to now successfully producing her own book of Professional Liability business. She actively attends the annual PLUS meeting and has attended multiple meetings throughout the year for various disciplines. Continuously working on designations while also being RPLU

How has this person already uniquely contributed to the PL industry?

She has strongly encouraged and guided for first Associate Broker, Alex Lauritsen-McCay, to complete his RPLU in record time. She is now focusing this same energy on her second Associate Broker, Bryant Richey, to accomplish the same. In addition to her broking skills she is adept at providing education to our retail client partners on the E&O world.

Why do you consider this person to be an emerging leader in the PL industry?

She is driven and a value-added broker internally and externally. The aforementioned push to get her associates involved in RPLU and subsequently PLUS is a prime example of her commitment to the industry. She is quickly working to build out a large team focused entirely on Professional business. She is an active marketer of the lines of business within the professional market and develops extremely strong relationships with multiple professional carriers.
